Funeral of Miss Marian Welch. The funeral of Miss Marian Welch, the young lady who died Saturday morning as a result, her parents believe, of being badly frightened by an unidentified colored man while on her way to school, as stated in the Sunday Star, took place this morning, at 9 o'clock, from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Rev. Ambrose Beavan, assistant paster of the church, officiated, conducting the simple burial service. The pallbearers were James Owen, Alfred Schmidt, James Heany, Paul Smith, Louis Conradis, Clarence Owen and Hillery Saunders. The interment was at Mount Olivet cemetery. Tug Strikes Wharf at Glymont. A report from Glymont, Md., is that the wharf at that point was badly damaged last week by one of the big tugs of the navy yard running into it while on the way from this city to the naval proving grounds at Indian Head. Md., with a lighter on which was a big gun in tow. The accident occurred about dark and during a thick fog. The river channel runs close to the pier at Glymont, and the course up and down the river changes almost abreast of the wharf. So far as known the tug and barge escaped serious damage, but the wharf was badly torn, and the steamboat men here are doubtful if it can be used as a landing place until repairs are made.
